COMPASS SUMMIT

The Royal Lancaster Hotel, London

July 29th - 31st

Resilience in an Age of Distrust

We are delighted to invite you to our third annual Compass Summit for cybersecurity leaders. The Compass Summit convenes cyber leaders from the world's leading companies to elevate cyber resilience as a strategic business priority.

ISTARI will be hosting Compass at the Royal Lancaster Hotel in London, commencing with a welcome dinner on the evening of July 29th, followed by sessions on Tuesday, July 30th, and Wednesday, July 31st.

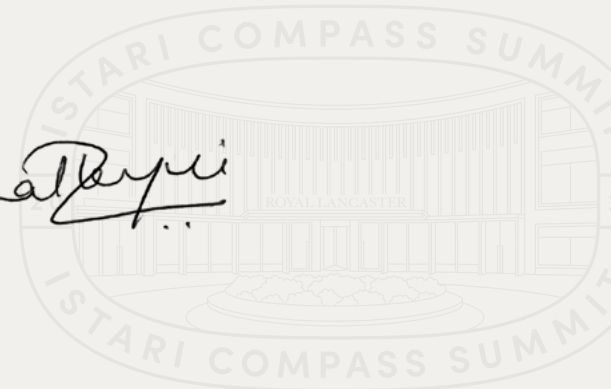

Against a backdrop of bullish markets, 42 major political elections, enterprises facing recessionary economies and AI topping the business agenda, the role of the cyber leader continues to evolve. Hence, the theme for this year's summit will be “Resilience in an Age of Distrust.”

The theme for Compass this year will build upon the macro-landscape discussions from 2023 and we will delve even further into the changing global business landscape and evolving enterprise, through keynotes, panel discussions, fireside chats, and workshops. We are once more delighted to partner with the Deputy Editor of the Economist, Tom Standage, to help guide us through our agenda.

A Community of Interest & Collective Action

Why?

Cyber resilience is one of the most significant systemic challenges. A connected world requires collective resilience.

What?

A global cyber resilience community, representing some of the world's largest companies, sharing insights and best practice, driving thought leadership and collective action.

How?

Founded on ISTARI's core philosophy of Collective Power, we convene experts, business leaders, policymakers and practitioners to advance the cyber resilience agenda.

Location

The Compass Summit is where CISOs and top cyber leaders meet to stay at the forefront of the sector, co-create the future, and give the industry something to talk about.

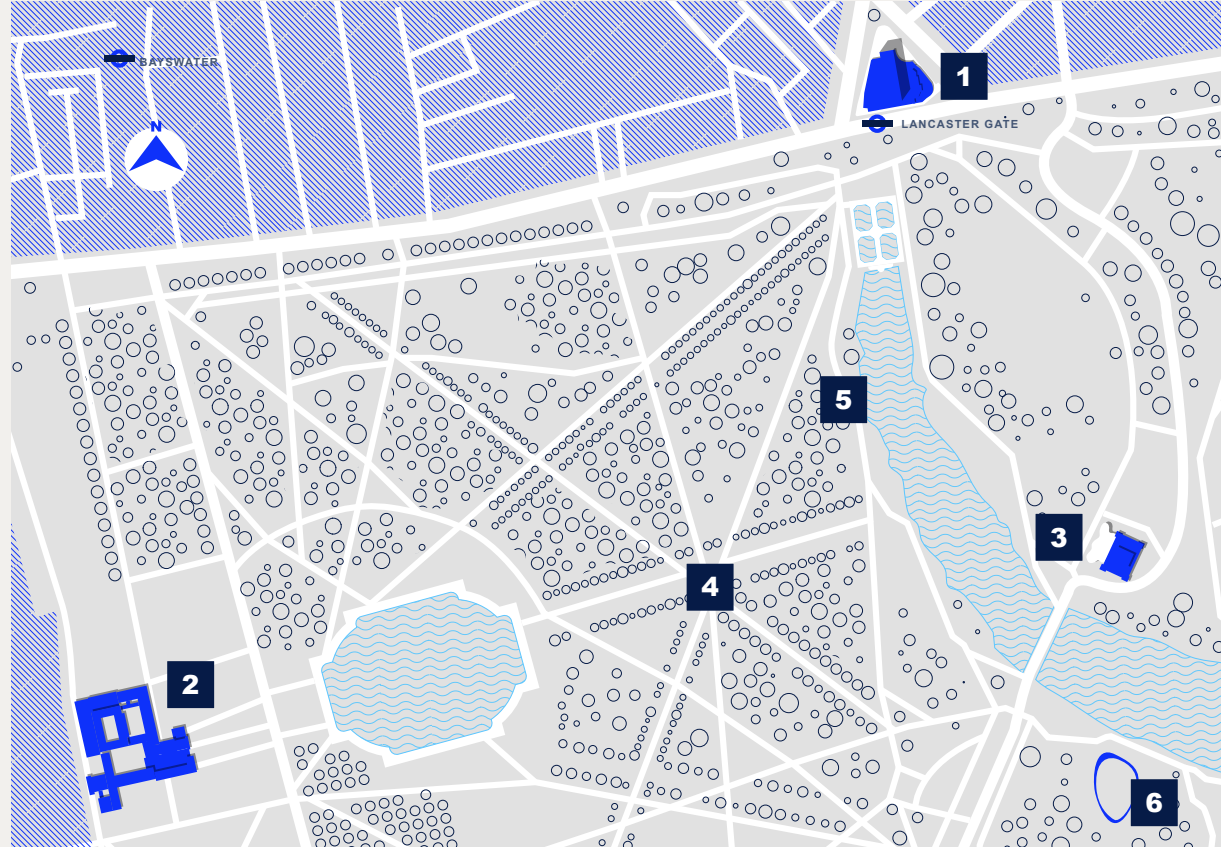

This year, our annual gathering will be hosted at the Royal Lancaster Hotel. The summit will commence with a welcome dinner on the evening of July 29th, followed by sessions on Tuesday, July 30th, and Wednesday, July 31st. Recently refurbished, the hotel has a prime location adjacent to Hyde Park, and is conveniently situated within walking distance of our dinner venues - historic Kensington Palace, and the visionary restaurant, The Magazine at the Serpentine.

This combination promises a truly distinctive 'campus' experience in the heart of West London.

08:55 - 09:00 | Welcome to the Compass Summit
Will Dixon, ISTARI

09:00 - 09:30 | Resilience in an Age of Distrust

Tom Standage, The Economist; Martin Jetter, Deutsche Börse (German Stock Exchange)

To set the stage for Compass and the theme of Resilience in an Age of Distrust, we will be joined by a special guest, the Chairman of the Deutsche Börse (German Stock Exchange), Martin Jetter. In a special fireside conversation, we explore how, as the steward of one of the world's most important financial centres, he views the current market, business volatility and its implications for executive business and risk leaders.

09:30 - 10:00 | The World Ahead

Tom Standage, The Economist

We will hear from the Editor of The Economist's famous The World Ahead publication on the interlocking challenges facing business leaders: the ongoing war in Ukraine, conflict in the Middle East, a year of pivotal elections in some of the world's most important economies, the transition to renewable energy, and the spectre of a returning Donald Trump.

10:00 - 10:45 | The C-Suite In-tray: Agenda-Setting Priorities

Tom Standage, The Economist; Tom Glocer, Former CEO, Thomson Reuters

Navigating the global business and risk agenda is the CEO and their C-Suite. The most senior leaders within an organisation are tasked with attempting to set a path for future growth and success. This a unique opportunity to glean insights into the most senior decision-makers' process and how they are changing their businesses to adapt to new global and business risks.

Tuesday, 30th July: Organisational Revolution
